Young Preservationists Happy Hour in Fell's Point One-Eyed Mike's 708 South Bond Street Thursday, September 28 6:00-8:00 pm

Baltimore's Young Preservationist Happy Hour is headed to southeast Baltimore on Thursday, September 28. Fell's Point has been a vibrant historic neighborhood for nearly 300 years. It has had its share of great bars since the early 1700s (and still does!). One-Eyed Mike's on Bond Street is housed in a building dating to 1858 and still has an 1860s hand-carved back bar and the original tin ceiling. We'll be enjoying the start of fall on the back patio, which Baltimore City Paper declared

"the Place for Baltimore's Best Outdoor Dining."

This month's Happy Hour is co-hosted by the Preservation Society. If this is your first Baltimore Heritage event, you're eligible for lots of free goodies - so come and get 'em! See you at the happy hour.
